

SPLendor TO MARK SHRINER'S PARADE, PAGEANT IN JOLIET

A parade and pageant to be staged in Joliet a week from Saturday, July 26, under the auspices of Medinah temple of Chicago, Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, in short the Shriners—is expected to attract more than 25,000 visitors, according to th committee in charge.

The parade, which is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock DST, will be followed in the evening by a pageant to be given in the Joliet Memorial Stadium, three miles west of that city on U. S. Route 52. The pageant is to begin at 7:30 o'clock and is open to the public. There will be no tickets, no admission charge, no collection or offering. In brief, the affair is free, said Josiah Treharne, general chairman of the committee on arrangements of the Joliet Shrine club, which will be host.

Besides a contingent of 800 from Medinah temple, 13 Shrine clubs in northeast Illinois will send large delegations. Mr. Treharne said that at least 3,000 Shriners will take part in the parade.

Each club will enter an elaborately decorated float—at least one of which will be symbolic of the work for which the Shriners are internationally famous, their hospitals for crippled children at which youngsters are brought back to happy, normal health without cost to their families, and without regard to color, race or creed.

Besides the floats there will be bands, clowns, camels, horses, and patrols and chanters dressed in silks and satins of oriental splendor.

Special arrangements have been made to provide meals for those participating in the parade at the Joliet Masonic temple and seven nearby churches so that hotels and restaurants will be free to attend the wants of the visitors that are expected to flock to Joliet for the event.

Last year there were two of these events one at Aurora, one at Waukegan. This year the Joliet parade and pageant will be the only affair of its kind to be sponsored by Medinah temple, it was announced.

SPARK SETS MAN AFIRE

John W. Reiter was quite badly burned last Friday when a spark from a tractor which he had been repairing, ignited gasoline on his clothing and hair. The fire was extinguished by his helpers and first aid was applied at the Shepherd home near where he was working.

"MEANEST THIEF" STEALS WADING POOL

How mean and inconsiderate can some people get when they deliberately deprive small children of their pleasures? Last week someone took the wading pool from the premises of the Gust Zerbs' new home on Kean ave., near 143rd street, Orland, where they have just moved.

If the guilty person knew what fun the small fry have in a private wading pool, which is far better than to go to a public beach, he or she would hang their head in shame.

Publisher Greatly Impressed by Sunday Morning Services at Stateville Prison

Mrs. Margaret Semmler, together with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Dodsworth of Canada, attended the Protestant services at Stateville penitentiary a week ago Sunday morning, and found it well worth their while.

Rev. Albert A. Sorenson, the chaplain, delivered a most interesting and enlightening sermon to his congregation of nearly 500 convicts, about four-fifths of whom were colored. Mrs. Semmler and her party were on the platform directly behind Mr. Sorenson, and had a fine opportunity to view the service.

Rev. Sorenson's sermon was quite appropriate for a prison audience, and centered around the theme of how Jesus took the rap for Barrabas, a common thief. The word "rap," of course is prison lingo, and it brought the trial of Jesus right down to date. It was the custom in those days to release one prisoner to the people, and the thief, Barrabas, was chosen. Rev. Sorenson brought out the idea of what Barrabas might have thought when he was being released in place of an innocent man when he knew he was guilty and deserved punishment. In the end he probably died on the cross, because he was the type of man who never reforms.

Rev. Sorenson had just returned from a 5,000 mile vacation motor trip through the West and Mt. Rushmore in South Dakota. The convicts were very attentive to his description of his trip, and evidently enjoyed hearing him tell about it. Their demeanor throughout the entire service was one of close attention, and it was very edifying.

There was a fine choir, which was directed by one of the colored convicts. All had wonderful voices, and Rev. Sorenson

Estate of $108,000 Left by Ben Mager

An estate valued at $108,500 was left by the late Ben Mager, a director of the Frankfort State bank, who was at one time its president. Of this, $14,000 was listed as personal property and $108,000 as real estate. Mr. Mager died June 25.

Mr. Mager's estate is being handled by Attorney A. H. Krusemark, Jr. It provides that the son, LeRoy, of Frankfort, receive a 200-acre farm located in Frankfort. The rest of the estate will be handled as though there was no will. Under this arrangement, Ethel Mae, of Frankfort, the widow, will receive one third of the estate.

Le Roy will serve as executor of the estate.

Former Mokena Man Celebrates Golden Wedding in Joliet

Mrs. Bertha Wallace and her daughters, Mrs. Walter Olson and son Norman, Mrs. Janet Janke of Mokena and Mrs. Beatrice Carlquist of Hinsdale attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. Wallace's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barnes, Sunday. The celebration took place on the lawn at the Barnes home at 117 Norton avenue, Joliet. Mrs. Wallace was the only other one present of the bride party 50 years ago when she was bridesmaid.

Mr. Barnes is a former Mokena man. He had operated the wrecker crane for the E. J. & E. railroad, and retired in 1938.

Mrs. Nellie McGovney of Mokena and Mrs. Julia Walsh of New Lenox sisters of Mr. Barnes also were present. More than 150 guests attended the celebration.

Mrs. Janke and Mrs. Carlquist presided at the coffee urn while refreshments were being served.

To Attend Missouri Valley College

Russell Geuther, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Geuther of Mokena, has enrolled as a freshman at Missouri Valley college located at Marshall, Missouri, for the fall term of the 1952-53 school year, starting in September. Geuther was graduated from Orland Park high school this year.

During his high school years, Geuther participated in a number of school activities, including work in school dramatics, youth work in the Evangelical church, and membership in the Young Men's Christian association and the Boy Scouts of America.

JOINS U. S. SERVICE

Richard Kreml, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kreml, of Mokena, and Jack Martie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Martie, also of Mokena, left Wednesday morning to join the U. S. service.

requested they sing for their visitors a special number. It was a spiritual and beautifully done. After this, the party sat in wrap attention as this congregation of nearly 500 male voices sang the old church hymns that have inspired millions for centuries.

All who attended the service did so of their own free will, as is customary. There is no compulsion.

After the close of the service Mrs. Semmler and her cousins were escorted through a number of buildings in Stateville, which included the dining hall, the bakery, where they had just finished baking the daily allotment of 800 loaves of bread, the commissary and the tailoring department, where suits are made for the convicts as well as the official suits worn by the guards.

The party also saw the schools which are attended by many of the convicts, as a large percentage of them are quite illiterate. The same instruction is given as in our public schools, and the educational program is from first grade on through high school.

Moving pictures are shown from time to time in the prison. One of the most impressive sights was the beautiful formal gardens, which cannot be seen from outside the prison walls. These gardens, arranged in symmetrical designs, are the work of convicts, and especially the work of one convict who has been confined for 40 years and who has made a hobby of horticulture.

Mrs. Semmler is most grateful to Sheriff Roy Doerfler as a special courtesy to a newspaper, for making reservations for this Sunday morning visit to Stateville.

Frankfort Records Verified by Audit

In its statement of auditing, the Raymond S. Blunt Company of Joliet who audited the records of the village clerk at Frankfort made the following report:

"The book balance of the cash in the Frankfort State bank, at the close of business April 30, 1952, amounted to $14,101.19, was reconciled with the bank balance shown by the bank statement and was verified by direct correspondence with the depository. Checks amounting to $115.00 had been issued but had not been presented to the bank for payment, which increased the bank balance to $14,216.19. Cancelled checks were examined as to signature and all disbursements have been set forth in Exhibit 'B'."

"We received full cooperation from the village clerk and the village treasurer and wish to express appreciation for the courtesies extended our representatives during this engagement."

"We believe the aforesaid statements and the comments thereon provide full information to support our opinion as to the cash receipts and disbursements of the Village of Frankfort, Ill., from May 1, 1951 to April 30, 1952 inclusive."

Respectfully submitted

Village Players Relax at Steak Fry

In view of the extreme heat last weekend and the interest in the Republican convention, the Village Players had to be satisfied with an attendance of about 100 at each performance of "The Night of January 16th" last Friday and Saturday. The audiences both nights declared it to be a very interesting play, well cast and well played.

There were cheers on Saturday night when Mrs. Elizabeth Cappel's name was drawn for jury duty, as everyone thought it intriguing to see her on the stage judging the acting of many of her former pupils.

Both nights the jury found the defendant (appearing played by Donna Bueschel) not guilty, and were a little startled when Judge Heath (Garrit Swart in real life) took them to task for their verdict. What they didn't know was that his words would have been the same, which ever verdict they brought in!

On Sunday the players relaxed at their cast party which took the form of a steak fry at the outdoor barbecue and picnic spot at the Sherwood home. The delicious grade A steaks were provided by Marion Owen, and the rest of the food was potluck. Those present in addition to Marion Owen were his mother, Mrs. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Swart, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hentsch, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hooehlan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Montezon, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rodeghero, Donna Bueschel, Marguerite, Bass Clarabelle Sippel, Ray Heimerdinger, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Geuther, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Rueckert, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehmann and Fritz Lehmann, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark and Henry Clark, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Marcoux, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hart.

Editorial

The Republican national convention recently held in the amphitheatre in Chicago provided an opportunity for the first time in the history of our country for those other than the delegates and alternates present to witness the proceedings of the convention of a national party of the United States. The proceedings were televised, enabling hundreds of thousands of people in the Chicago area and millions throughout the country to view the happenings. Millions of others attended the convention by means of radio.

It was a source of great disillusionment of thinking—conscientious people when they observed the crooked manipulation of this convention. They had witnessed the patriotism injected into the convention daily by the reverence extended to our flag when it was presented and the pledge of allegiance given to it. They had witnessed also the patriotic zeal inspired by the invocations asking divine guidance in these proceedings.

They were impressed still further when General MacArthur and former President Hoover, in inspiring addresses, pointed to the desperate need of a return to the high moral standards and principles in government enunciated by George Washington and the founding fathers, which have made this nation the greatest nation on earth in an incomparably short period of time.

Senator Dirksen's great oration carried the same note, stressing the need to a return to the old fashioned Christian virtues, and other speakers brought this point into view.

These speeches were cheered and cheered, as though endorsed from the hearts and souls of everyone present.

And then, in the twinkling of an eye, the noble utterances in speech and invocation were completely forgotten, and the underground machinery of the convention got into operation. Instead of the nation's welfare being the keynote, as should be, and which is the avowed purpose of any national convention, personal aggrandizement became the keynote and the sole motivating force of the convention.

Country was forgotten in the consuming desire for seizure of personal power.

Is it possible that the high ideals for which the people cheered and the courses charted by men of vision who know what they are talking about are to be dumped by the wayside by other men who care little or nothing for their nation's welfare?

What has become of our representative government which has made the United States the leader and envy of all the world if the will of the people as expressed in the primaries all over the country can be so flagrantly flouted by a few hundred men and women determined to put their candidate over, regardless.

It is a part of the American heritage of freedom to enjoy the privilege of voting for the candidate of their choice, rather than be compelled to have a handful of delegates pick their candidate for them from a stack of deck. As it is, the voter will have no choice in the November election. This evil can be corrected only by a referendum vote.

Revoke License Of Reckless Driver

Fred Shunko, 16, of Woodland Circle, Mokena, was arrested last Friday by Mokena's chief of police on charges of disorderly conduct. He was followed by the chief through the village, and at the corner of Main street and Hamilton road his car turned over in a field owned by Andrew Cappel. The state police soon arrived on the scene. Damages to the car amounted to $150.00.

The other occupant of the car was Robert Barclay, 16, also of Mokena. Neither of the youths was injured.

A trial was held Saturday night in the village hall before Judge Balaz. Shunko was fined $18 and his driver's license temporarily suspended, with the provision that he may drive to work for a 30 day period, but cannot use the car for other purposes. He is prohibited from being in the village of Mokena after 9:00 p.m.

DeKalb Field Tour Set for July 18th

The third annual field meeting at the DeKalb soil experiment field for northern Illinois will be held Friday, July 18, starting at 1 p.m. daylight time announces Cook Co. Farm Adviser Carl F. Mees.

The field is located north of Shabbona.

Field tours are planned to see the oat and wheat variety test plots, soybean and corn experiments, weed control work and soils and fertilizer tests. Various specialists from the University of Illinois College of Agriculture will be present to explain the work and answer questions.

About 300 persons attended the first field day in 1950, and a crowd of over 400 heard Dean H. P. Rusk of the College of Agriculture dedicate the field last year.

The DeKalb field, now in its fifth crop year, is part of some land given to the University by the late Dr. H. G. Wright, long time resident and prominent citizen of DeKalb county. Farmers' farm organizations, seed companies, business concerns and others have contributed more than $40,000 to develop the field.

These funds have been spent for a large headquarters building which can be used for a machine shed, meeting place for 300 persons, crop storage and other uses; for the superintendent's 6-room house; for a tractor and machinery; for drainage and tiling; and for a 1-4 mile gravel roadway into the building.

TO DEDICATE ST. FRANCIS MEMORIAL SUN.

An impressive service is planned for the program to dedicate the St. Francis memorial in the Chapel garden at the Community Center Foundation of Palos Park Sunday, July 20 at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The memorial, dedicated "To the Glory of God and to perpetuate the memory of friends who through their efforts have built this Foundation" is an attractive bird bath, fittingly set among the flowers, trees and birds that St. Francis so loved. The original was designed by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Torrey of Chicago. Mr. Torrey is a well-known sculptor famed for his Lincoln pieces used in the Memorial at Springfield. It was executed in stone for the Foundation by Carl Zimmerman Cut Stone Co. of Chicago. The bird bath into which the water will flow and the setting was done by Anton Federici of Orland Park.

The memorial stands six feet tall, cut from smooth, grey limestone. St. Francis holds a small basin in his hands on which is perched a bird apparently drinking. The fountain will flow into this bowl and then overflow into a large bird bath at the feet of St. Francis. Set in the Chapel garden as it is, it instantly arrests the attention of anyone approaching the chapel and will provide a silent tribute to all who wish to worship in quiet and beauty.

An impressive program is planned for the occasion. Rev. Paul T. Sanders will give the dedicatory speech, assisted by Neil J. Anderson, president of the board of trustees. Mrs. Virginia Langdon of Palos Heights will sing.

The dedication of the St. Francis memorial marks another step in the forward-looking program of the Community Center Foundation dedicated to the service of all mankind.

Don't forget Bettenhausen and Schuldt Motor Sales Open House July 18, 19, 20, Tinley Park

In June Col. Armstrong spoke at the New Lenox Lion's club meeting and requested that they establish a Ground Observation Corps in New Lenox to supplement the nation's radar screen to spot enemy bombers. They have such an organization in Joliet, Mokena, and in various places in this area, which offer a volunteer 24-hour a day plane spotter service.

Starting Monday at 8:00 a. m. this plane spotter watch was started in New Lenox under supervision of the New Lenox Lion's Club. When it was started it was the understanding that it was to continue for just a few days, but since then they have learned that it is a permanent arrangement. Because of this, New Lenox does not have enough watchers, and they are now sending out a call for watchers to help observe plane movements.

Each watcher is expected to serve two hours daily. So far, there are two watchers on duty at one time, one who observes and the other at a telephone. When the observer spies a multi-engine plane in the sky through his binoculars he reports it to the person at the telephone, and it is at once reported to the Northern Observation Corps in Chicago.

This corps is informed as to what planes should be in the air at a given place and time, and if a multi-engine plane is reported for which there is no known schedule, swift F-85 Sabre jets will take off from O'Hare air force base to determine if the plane is friendly.

To meet this need for spotters in "Operation Skywatch" New Lenox is now calling for help to man this corps for this area. Volunteers are desired from Frankfort, Mokena, Marley, Homer and other nearby points. Each volunteer will serve in two hour shifts, and there is no remuneration for this service.

Citizens who are willing to render this patriotic service to their country are asked to call Amos Bruns at New Lenox 2571 where this post is located.

'SKY SAUCERS' SEEN NEARBY

On July 14, 27 states participated in the 24-hour "sky watch" of the Ground Observer Corps. Last Saturday night, at about 9:20, a report was called in to the Orland post that "flying saucers" were seen in the skies in the area northwest of town. It appeared to be in the shape of a long disc with an unusual bright light, followed by a long streak of light which suddenly disappeared. This "thing" was also reported seen in Indianapolis, Ind. and Davenport, Ia.

This can hardly be laid to hallucinations, inasmuch as several people in this state and other states have observed the same phenomenon, and should furnish the reason for everyone to be alerted to unusual objects appearing in the skies.

Orland is sorely in need of more observers. Will you not pledge yourself to aid in this program? Call Joe Lebens or Mrs. George Estand for further information.

Profit Sharing Agreement Gets Son Started in Farming

My son wants to farm and I'd like to see him on this farm some day. But I'm not ready to retire. There aren't many farms for rent, and he doesn't have much money.

That's a problem that is bothering a good many farm Dads these days. And it's a tough one. But here's one possible answer: a profit-sharing agreement. It will give the son a chance to get paid for his labor and to save toward becoming a part owner. It's an important step in climbing the agricultural ladder 1952 model.

Here's how one central Illinois grain farmer gave his son a start. A true case using assumed names, it comes from Jack Claar, farm management supervisor in the Illinois College of Agriculture.

Claar says this partnership clicks for six good reasons:

1. The farm is large enough and is efficiently operated.

2. Complete and accurate records are kept.

3. Satisfactory living conditions are provided.

4. Income is divided fairly.

5. Plans are adjusted from time to time and

6. Father and son cooperate in making decisions.

Jim, the Dad, rents a good 400 acre farm on a crop-share basis.

He brought his son Bill, into the business under a profit-sharing agreement in 1946. Besides producing grain, they raise about 20 litters of pigs a year, and recently they started feeding cattle.

Bill, now 26 years old, contributes only his labor and gets 25 percent of the tenant's income. This arrangement is fair in this case, but may need to be different for an owned farm, for a smaller farm, for a younger man or for a less efficiently operated farm.

The son draws $200 a month which is deducted from his 25 per cent at the end of the year. He has averaged about $3,100 a year since 1946. Annual settlement is based on Farm Bureau Farm Management Service records.

Jim's Dad has built and moved into a house off the farm, leaving the home place to the young folks. He's taking life easier and turning more of the farm management over to Bill as he's able to accept it. Now Bill is ready for the next rung of the agricultural ladder, joint ownership of equipment and livestock.

Polio Foundation Gives Suggestions

The National Foundation for infantile paralysis is making every effort to reach the homes of America with the latest medically-approved information on safeguards against polio. They feel that this is a vital public service during the summer and fall months and sincerely hope you will be able to help in this task.

As an aid to parents seeking this information, the National Foundation has issued its "1952 Polio Precautions."

Three of these safeguards apply specifically to polio: 1. Don't get chilled. 2. Don't mix with new groups; 3. Don't get overtired. The rule, But Do Keep Clean, is good advice for health at any time, but it is especially important when polio is around.

To Play Role In Pre-Convention Social Activities

Mrs. John S. Clark, 4856 W. Jackson Blvd., and Mrs. Edward J. McCabe, 5033 W. Adams St., will play prominent roles in the pre-convention social activities for women delegates, alternates and distinguished women

Mrs. Clark, wife of the county assessor, is chairman of the pre-convention Sunday evening supper to be held on July 20 in the grand ballroom of the Palmer House.

Mrs. McCabe, wife of State Rep. McCabe, is co-chairman of this event, the highlight of the social activities.

They will assist Mrs. Elizabeth A. Conkey, Democratic National Committeewoman from Illinois, who has been named official hostess of the convention.

Entertainment will be furnished by Allan Jones, talented singing star of "Guys and Dolls".

Other social events will include a day at the races, style shows and teas, and a buffet breakfast.

Home Bureau Board Meeting

The Executive board of the Will County Home Bureau met recently with Mrs. Betty Win-grove in her office in the Farm Bureau building in Joliet.

Miss Marguerite Offermann, president of the board, spoke of her recent attendance at the citizenship conference at Bradley University, Peoria. Mrs. John Sturn, county radio chairman, was also a delegate. Mrs. Roy Eib, county recreation chairman, was appointed to select a committee to plan a tour in the fall.

The annual meeting will be held September 18 in the Central Presbyterian church, Joliet, beginning at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Olive Remington Goldman of the regional office of the Federal Civil Defense administration will be the main speaker.

The reports of the Home Advisor and the assistant Home Advisor, Miss Kay Anderson, were heard. Board members were invited to the home of Mrs. Wingrove for a potluck luncheon for the August meeting.

Knock Down and KILL Them ALL—in seconds instead of hours!

Entirely New, Proven
MICROSOL FOG GENERATOR
is Fast, Easy to Use, and Efficient

By a revolutionary new method, the Microsol Fog Generator gives more complete, longer lasting coverage of insecticides than is possible with conventional spray machines.

Every second the Microsol Generator is in operation, it produces and distributes millions of insecticide molecules less than 1/500th of an inch in diameter! These accumulated molecules create a penetrating aerosol fog or mist that remains suspended in air, giving the insecticide lasting, deadly effect as well as instant action.

The Microsol Generator is small and weighs only 11½ pounds. To operate it you simply fill container with any insecticide (with water or oil base, ready-mixed or home prepared) and place the machine in center of area to be fogged. Turn the switch and regulate handy valve for density of fog. Spray a cow in seconds... the barn in minutes... with an insecticide fog that reaches even tiniest crevices.

Plan now, before fly time sets in, to investigate this latest improved method of insect control. Microsol Fog Generators are now being used successfully in dairy barns, poultry houses, stables and other buildings. See your local Public Service Company Engineer for additional information.

Frankfort Wins 2-1

By Dennis Wheeler

Days have been mighty glum lately, with the Small Fry League at Frankfort, because after Frankfort had won five in a row, they lost 2 in a row.

There was a question about it; Frankfort was due to break out in a rash of hits, runs etc. Mgr. Schroeder picked Allan Mager to take on Peotone.

Peotone Takes Lead in Third
After one away the Peotone batter drove a hit to left. The next batter drove a hit and so it went. Thank heaven only one run scored. The way it looked I thought at least 3 or 4 runs would score.

In the fifth with one out, Frankfort put two men on first and second. But both runners died and it didn't look good for the Frankfort supporters.

The sixth inning was the big one for Frankfort. With bases loaded, two out, score 1-1 Allen Fink came to bat. Allen must have, while walking to the plate, jumped out of his skin. On the first pitch you could see he was nervous. But as the pitcher wound up, he got enough courage to belt a hot mash to the left of third baseman. He made a nice play but he was in a mess. Fink, who was running faster than he had ever done was too close to first. Studnicki was too close to the plate and the man from second was past him and on third. The man on first was on second already. The ball game was over since Studnicki scored.

Matteson Wins 3-2

On July 2 Matteson was to play Frankfort. It rained that evening so the play off was staged at Frankfort July 11. After four innings the score was tied 2-2. Then the rains came again. So on Saturday (last week) the rest was played. In the fifth, the first batter Kenny Schoelling drove a hit to left. The next batter, Al Buchmeier, hit the ball thru the box. Gerry Mankowski got a late start and it went to center. Don Carter let it get by him and Schoelling winged his way to home. Dave Zechlin got out of the inning but Frankfort couldn't come thru with needed runs. So our boys lost and lets hope it's the last of the season.

Frankfort Defeats Tinley Park

The Frankfort Teenagers won their second straight baseball game Saturday when they defeated Tinley Park 8 to 2 on the looser diamond.

Frankfort scored all of their runs in the first two innings, while Tinley got theirs in the third and sixth. Frankfort had 8 runs on hits and made 1 error, while Tinley Park had 2 runs on 6 hits and committed 2 errors. The winning pitcher was Studnicki, the looser Propp. Following is the box score.
